JOCKEY CLUB STEWARDS SANCTION MEETING AT SOUTH CAROLINA COURSE.

Notice Given That Stewards of the Jockey Club Will Consider Reinstatement of Horses, Owners and Jockeys Outlawed at Columbia.

New York, January 18.—Sanction of the stewards of the Jockey Club was granted today to the Charleston Fair and Racing Association to conduct a race meeting at €harleston, S. C., from January 24 to the control of the meeting at Charleston, S. C., from January 24 to April 19.

The Jockey Club recently announced that it would outlaw the Charleston meeting unless certain conditions were complied with. Today John Marshall. president of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association, appeared before a special meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club and made formal application for a sanction, which was granted.

Regarding the meeting at Columbia last month, which was declared an outlaw meeting, the stewards adopted the following resolution:

"The stewards of the Jockey Club hereby give notice that on personal application they will consider the question of reinstating all owners, trainers, jockeys and horses which participated in the meeting held at Columbia, S. C., November 30 last;

E. C. Smith was appointed steward to represent be Jockey Club at the Charleston meeting.

Concerning the Charleston episode, August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, is quoted as saying:

"I hope there will be no misunderstanding in

Concerning the Charleston episode, August Bermont, chairman of the Jockey Club, is quoted as saving:

"I hope there will be no misunderstanding in this matter. The Jockey Club has controlled racing in the east for many years and it is still in existence. The Jockey Club's tracks, while temporarity closed, remain intact. The State Racing Commission is ready to grant licenses and the whole machinery is in excellent running order. There is no racing, however, for the excellent reason, that the Jockey Club does not know what the present law beans. Until littigation evolves an interpretation of the statutes it is wise to remain passive, but in due time the Jockey Club will be advised as to what can be done. Then there will be racing.
"It would be extremely unfortunate if any outside track should question the authority of the Jockey Club at this time. We have acted in good faith and are prepared to make a fight to restore the turf to former conditions or modified conditions if possible. We do not desire to impose hardships, but under the circumstances we are compelled to enforce the rules. Charleston is in Jockey Club territory and there is no good reason apparently why there should be trouble over a license."

Charleston, S. C., January 18,—News was received

there is no good reason apparently why there should be trouble over a license."

Charleston, S. C., January 18.—News was received here this afternoon that the stewards of the Jockey Club had sanctioned the meeting that the Charleston Fair and Raching Association purpose giving at Palmetto Park January 24 to April 19. The stewards also made public that on personal application, they would consider the question of reinstating all horomen, jockeys and trainers who participated in the recent meeting held at Columbia. The records show that 259 horses, the property of 155 different owners, started at Columbia and that they were trained by 103 different trainers and ridden by fifty-two jockeys. A. Henry Higginson, steward of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, is one of those who came under the ban.

Matters at the local course progressed in a manuary which leads one to believe that the plant will be in readiness by Saturday, provided no more rain fails in the meantime. Floats were run over the track all day and this helped in drying it out. It will take a couple of days of sunshine to dry out the track enough to warrant the harrows being put to work. Everyone is hoping for the best, as further pathonement would seriously affect the meeting.

J. R. Wainwright, the Pittsburg turfman whose string is one of the most important at Palmetto Park, seems to have a shifty two-year-old in his stable by Star Shoot—La Pucelle. Mr. Wainwright aread La Pucelle for several seasons and she was a frequent winner for him. The mare's first foal, which was by Ben Strome, failed to show speed enough to warrant his being anywhere near as good a race horse as his dam, and last winter Fred Luzakas farmer. The best youngster in the Wainwright string appears to be a colt by Dick Finnell—Paradise Won. W. J. Young and several other horsemen who came from Lexington recently say that the youngsters by Dick Finnell in training at the Kennicky Association course have all shown well in trials. Dick Finnell is a half brother to John A. Drak string.

Robert T. McKeever has arranged to sail for Europe on February 20. He will accompany jockey Eddie Dugan abroad and look after his interests. Dugan is under contract to Baron Rothschild in Jugan is under contract to Baron Rothschild in Austria.

Charlie Quinn, who arrived from New York on Tuesday, has taken over several horses that J. W. May has been handling for Frederick Johnson. These horses will in future be handled by John P. Mayberry, under whose care the horse Feather Duster has been since the close of the Norfolk meeting. The horses that figure in the sale are: A two-year-old colt by Peep o'Day—Wantage, a two-year-old colt by Peep o'Day—Ellangowan, and the three-year-old filly Miss Wiggs. The name Cock O' The Walk has been sent to Registrar Rowe for the Ellangowan colt and Early Bird for the Wantage colt.

Former Jockey John McCauley will ship Electioneer and Chilton Queen here from Washington, D. C.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING THREE-YEAR-OLDS OF 1911

Which was the best three-year-old of 1911 is an unsolved problem, but Zeus and Watervale were probably the two best. Governor Gray won more money than any horse of his age but, good as he really was, he was unquestionably inferior to the two named and probably to Flint Rock and Meridian also. Usually when no one stands out pre-eminent it is held that the three-year-olds of that year are of inferior class, but this could not be justly said of 1911. It was a year of truly extra good three-year-olds, amply proved by rarely good displays of speed, endurance and ability to carry high weight successfully. Messenger Boy, for instance, was not in the first or second rank, yet he was able to register a record at four miles that shattered all precedents in long-distance racing. This alone is a striking testimonial to the high quality of our best three-year-olds of last year. For another pointer four of the seven horses of 1911 that won $10,000 or more were three-year-olds and remarkably good ones also. Zeus was second to Governor Gray in money won and was the best son of Adam running last year here or abroad. In money earning the thirty leaders of the year were the following:

H. G. BEDWELL'S BIG STRING OF RACERS

Last year H. G. Bedwell campaigned a big band of horses, of which Prince Ahmed was best and one that for a horse of his age at times displayed remarkably well preserved speed. But it was his Yankee filly, Sticker, that proved his best money winner and her record was quite creditable. Of the twenty-nine horses that raced under his colors in the course of the year only Sticker, Nadzu, Prince Ahmed, Elizabeth Harwood, Richard Reed and Gilbert Rose contrived to win as much as $1,000 and in all the account of his stable earnings is as follows:

that on the present occasion only one is nominated —namely, Mr. Peeper.

"As usual, 'class' is well represented in the City and Suburban, the entry for which popular handicap includes Mushroom and Demosthenes (which finished respectively first and second last year), Ultimus (Manchester November Handicap winner), Hornet's Beauty, Sir Martin, Moscato, The Story, Sunspot, Lycaon, Cellini, Trepida (Duke of York Stakes and Liverpool Autumn Cup winner), Lonawand, St. Nat and Anchora. A prominent absentee from this race is Dean Swift.

"Bachelor's Double, which effected a surprise in the Kempton Jubilee Handicap last year, has been retired to the stud, but Wolfe Land and The Story, which finished second and third, can again do duty next May. The Story, it will be remembered, started a hot favorite twelve months ago, but J. B. Joel has also put in Sunspot and Lycaon.

"For the Jubilee Stakes prominent entrys are Royal Tender, Whisk Broom, Wolfe Land. The Story, Lycaon, Duke of Sparta II. (better known as Donnez-moi), Hornet's Beauty, Mustapha (which was recently bought for 2,400 guineas by a well-known turf commission agent), Merry Task, Mushroom, Greenback, Cyllius, Lonawand, Trepida, Ultimus and Protestant Boy.

"The Ascot Gold Cup entry is an exceedingly fine one, and embraces such celebrities as Lemberg, White Star, Prince Palatine, Cherimoya (last year's sensational Oaks hercine), Stedfast, King William, Willaura (recently purchased by Lord Derby for Zhoo guineas), Mushroom, Charles O'Malley, Bronzino and Kilbroney.

"The weights are due for the spring handicaps on January 25 and the acceptances a week later."

VAN BENSCHOTEN TO RIDE ABROAD.

VAN BENSCHOTEN TO RIDE ABROAD.

New York, January 18.—Providing the Jockey Club grants a license, jockey George Van Benschoten will sail for Europe soon with James H. McCormick to ride the horses of Baron Oppenheim in Germany this were published in yesterday's Racing Calendar." says London Sporting Life of January 5, "and though were published in yesterday's Racing Calendar." says London Sporting Life of January 5, "and though they show a slight falling off numerically, class is well represented. The Lincolnshire Handicap has secured 44 subscribers against 64 twelve months ago, the City and Suburban 37 against 49, Kempton Jubi-16e Stakes 35 against 39, Asott Gold Cup 41 against 47. Great Metropolitan Stakes 43 against 48. Kempton Queen's Prize 43 against 48. Kempton Queen's Prize 43 against 46. Coronation Cup 22 against 25, and Liverpool Spring Cup 31 against 35.

"The 'Lincoln' entry is the smallest since 1897, when it numbered 42. By reason of its being the first big race of the season, the Carholme event is salways an attractive theme in the early part of the year, and to judge by the 'class' of the entry on the present occasion it promises to provide a contest quite worthy of past traditions. It is always interesting to know how many three-year-olds are entered here, and it is distinctly disappointing to find

Van Benschoten, who is fifteen years old, will live with Mr. McCormick at the latter's training quar-ters in Cologne. The boy is supporting a small sister, who will be sent to school in Brocklyn.

WILL 'GET SPRING DATES IF READY.

Toronto, Ont., January 18.—The new racing organization at Ottawa was represented at the recent meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations when dates were allotted for the meetings of 1912 by President Hal McGiverin and Directors Stewart McClenaghan and Albert Rohrback. Mr. Rohrback is the manager of the new enterprise. The Ottawa plant will hardly be ready for a spring meeting, but if so dates will be allotted. In the meantime, a meeting of five days is included in the autumn circuit, coming in between Blue Bonnets and Woodbine. The establishment of a strong new club in the capital city of the Dominion will be of immense value to the whole circuit, and particularly so to Blue Bonnets. In the past the Montreal autumn meeting has suffered from the disinclination of owners to undertake the long and expensive shipment from the extreme westerly point of the circuit, windsor, for only seven days, all of which might possibly run into bad weather. The value of the addition of Ottawa will readily be perceived.

BIG KILLING REPORTED AT JUAREZ.

Montana Folks Credited With Winning $10,000 on Sir Irenus, Starting for Second Time.

El Paso, Tex., January 18.—A killing of no small proportions was engineered by a coterie of unknowa Montana people today. Sir Irenus was the meditum selected and he made good in impressive fashion. winning from Mandadero and Gift. He came from behind the leaders, making a sturdy effort through the stretch and getting up in plenty of time. The onse had only started once before and then in company vastly superior to that which he met today. The strangers wagered considerable money on him at odds ranging from 30 to 1 down to 15 to 1 and the result netted them a sum approximating $10.000.

Flying Footsteps won the feature race, a six-furlongs sprint, coming from behind and finishing with a rusi.

rush.

E. Gaylord, the well known Denver turfman and mining man, arrived here today and will remain for a few days. Mr. Gaylord has a pretentions string quartered at the course.

Jockey Small was suspended for five days for rough riding in the first race. He interfered somewhat with nis opponents while riding J. B. Robinson.

TO TRY AGAIN AT ALBANY.

Albany, N. Y., January 18.—Another effort will be made to make less stringent the directors' lia-bility feature of the anti-race track gambling law, according to Senator Gittins, who introduced a like measure last year, which passed the Senate, but was defeated in the Assembly,

1964*BIG CLAIM

W 4 106 4 9, 48%, 1:01, 1:07%. Track fast.

Winner—B. c, by Kismet, by Meltou—Bonila R. (trained by T. D. Turnmire).

Went to post at 2:46. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. SIR IRENUS began slowly, but moved up rapidly and, coming through the stretch fast on the outside, outgamed MANDADERO and won drawing out. MANDADERO ran prominently throughout and finished gamely. GIFT also ran an excellent race. McALAN came from far back in the last quarter. COLONEL MARCH-MONT was never prominent and ran a poor race. COED set a fast pace to midway of the stretch and quit badly. ISOM also quit after running in closest pursuit for five furiongs.

Scratched—1058*Oscuro, 108; 99835*Defy, 39; 1086 First Fashlon, 96; 1086 Skillute, 95; 96995 Narfi, 101. Overweights—Mandadero, 3 pounds; McAlan, 3; Odelia, 1; Big Claim, 1.

1092 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. (94103—1:37%—5—122.) Purse $300. 4-year-olds and upward. Seiling. Net value to winner $225; second, $50; third. $25.

OAKLAND set an extremely fast pace, but fired at five and a half furlongs, which seems his favorite distance. GOLDFINN ran a tame race. MARY EMILY showed some early speed and probably will improve. LADY MACY was outpaced and a trailer all the way.

Winner—B. g, by Don Orsino—Sister Gertrude (trained by W. Braden).

Went to post at 4:15. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. L. M. ECKERT received a strong ride and, closing a big gap, came fast through the stretch and just got up in time to win. YANKER set a fast pace, but may have been made too much use of early and was tiring at the finish of a game effort. HERETIC ran a fairly good race and finished fast. ERROR ran a good three-quarters and tired. FERN L. quit after running forwardly to the stretch.

Scratched—1079 Black Mate, 110; 1057 Great Friar, 90.

Winner—B, g, by Count Schomberg—Rochelle II. (trained by G. H. Keene).

Went to post at 4:48. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same,

MIAMI was far back in the early running but, under a good ride, came from behind in the last quarter and outgamed FLYING FEET at the end. FLYING FEET ran well and took the lead on the last turn, but tired in the final drive. MISS KORN ran forwardly and gamely all the way. THE MONK and WOLFERTON were running fast at the finish after making up much ground. SONA was speedy, but was done at six furlongs. HANNIS found the pace too fast. LENA LECH refused to extend herself. ANNE McGEE was done at six furlongs after setting a terrific pace from the start.

Scratched—1041 Sugar Lump, 98.
